Investing in Student Success

Oregon State University is committed to helping talented and ambitious international students achieve their goals of studying at a world class US university. 48 generous scholarships totaling $214,000 are available for 2011-12.

Having a scholarship, I don't have to worry about financial status, so I can concentrate on my studies and get the highest grade.

Type of award: Scholarships are available for students who enroll in an INTO OSU Undergraduate Pathway program for Fall 2011, Winter 2011, or Spring 2012.

Who is eligible: New applicants or current offer-holders for INTO OSU Academic English or Undergraduate Pathway programs will qualify as long as the student starts an Undergraduate Pathway during the 2011-12 academic year.

Value of awards: Each individual scholarship is valued at $4,464 and covers 100% of expenses for a double room and dining plan for 1 term which is 11 or 12 weeks. If a student selects a single room and dining plan, they will be credited $4,464 toward the cost of a single room.

Additional award details: All Undergraduate Pathway students are required to live on-campus for three (3) terms, starting with their first term. Scholarship recipients enrolled in those programs will be placed on a "first come, first serve" basis in a double room in the new International Living Learning Center, increasing the likelihood that they will be among the first students to live in this new, state of the art, $52 million facility that merges the academic experience and a residential setting. It will be home to 312 domestic and international students, providing all residents with the unique opportunity to learn about other cultures.

Number of awards: Only 48 scholarships are available.

Application procedure: Please contact StudyAbroad.sg consultant (Singapore) July 15, 2011.
